

Room To Learn aims to reach out to little children in the developing world. Children just like Manisha Achamay, who belongs to the Dalit Caste, known as untouchables. Manisha will get free entry into the local primary school, but her chances of completing primary education is lower than 50%. Born into poverty she is derogated to the lowest strata. Degraded, and looked upon as unclean by the rest of society, she will struggle. The other children she will complete with have homes with toys and books, a luxury her parents cannot afford. How can we break this chain of class bondage?

With your help we can ensure that children like Manisha can have a better start in life.

We can support her and children like her, laying a foundation to help their future to be one of hope and success.

Let's give these deprived little ones, learning for life skills that will ensure that when they do go on to primary school they will have the ability that enables them to compete, finish the course and go on to secondary education.

Room To Learn will ensure that they have suitable nursery schools, and teachers, providing a clean, safe and happy environment in which they can learn through play, song and dance, enabling them 'To live the Life of a Child' which every child has the right to have. Let's give them this opportunity.

Let's support these little children. Your donation frees Manisha and little ones like her. Let's Build Bridges of Progress. Let's give them 'A Thank You Start'. Let's turn 'Poverty into Progress'; 'Bondage into Freedom'; 'Failure into Success'. Give with love, a monetary blessing.
